death is the one certainty in life yet with the decline of religion in the west we have become collectively reluctant to talk about it our contemporary rituals seek to sanitise death and distance us from our own inevitable fate if we want to know how previous generations dealt with death graveyards famous and not tell us the history if we are able to read them if we want to know how we struggle today with understanding or facing up to death then graveyards provide a starting point and if we want to escape the present taboo on acknowledging our mortality and contemplate our own end then graveyards offer a rare welcome from neolithic mounds to internet memorials via medieval corpse roads and municipal cemeteries war graves and holocaust
